We eat, we shit.
We don't meet unless we cheat.
We believe in these, they believe in those.
We choose what is close.
Confinements are fine; they push us to the fringe of the society by our infringements.
We are the Schrödinger population: we are positive and negative until they release us.
We are everywhere, but we are nowhere.
Who are we?
Who are they?
